World Ozone Day

"Not so long ago, humanity stood on the brink of a self-inflicted catastrophe. Our use of ozone-depleting substances such as chlorofluorocarbons (CFCs) had torn a hole in the ozone layer that protects us from the sun's harmful ultraviolet radiation."

But we tackled this challenge. Thirty years ago, the international community signed the Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer. Under its Montreal Protocol, the world united to slash the production and consumption of CFCs and other ozone-depleting substances."

"Together, we have succeeded in putting the stratospheric ozone layer on the road to recovery by the middle of this century."

— UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon

In Delhi, volunteers plant trees to Save Planet Earth

The UN General Assembly in its resolution 49/114 declared 16 September as the International Day for Preservation of the Ozone Layer. The importance of this layer lies in absorbing biologically harmful ultraviolet radiations emitting from the sun. Depletion of Ozone layer would be disastrous for our planet.

To raise awareness of the Day, UNIC New Delhi joined hands with Shoobh Group (a volunteer group) at a tree plantation drive organized at the Maharaja Surajmal Park in east Delhi.

UNIC NIO Rajiv Chandran was Chief Guest at the event and delivered the UN Secretary-General's message on the Day. Other participants at the observance included senior officials from the Municipal Corporation and other civic bodies of the city. School students who attended took a pledge to save our 'Mother Earth' by only using ozone-friendly and CFC-free products. Guests also wrote their pledges on a large board.

On hearing of this event, the well-known scientist Dr. M.S. Swaminathan, Founder-Chairman of the M.S. Swaminathan Research

Foundation in Chennai congratulated UNIC on an important effort to promote Ozone Day awareness.

Several media organizations, both print and electronic were present to cover the launch and they all interviewed UNIC NIO. ■
